Re-Opening of Hialeah Race Track

November 28, 2009

Dear Friends,

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a happy holiday season. May you stay safe and I look forward to seeing you around the city at our upcoming events.

Turkey Give Away: This year the City of Hialeah joined by all public schools within the city joined together to help three families from each school enjoy a great Thanksgiving. The event was sponsored by Vista & Summit Health Plans, with canned foods donated by City of Hialeah residents employees, schools and local businesses. Mayor Robaina and the Latin American Business Association, also donated 400 thanksgiving meals to needy families countywide on November 21, 2009 at the Hialeah High Auditorium.

Veterans Day: On November 11, 2009 Mayor Julio Robaina, the City Council and the City of Hialeah Veterans Affairs Board honored the men and woman who have fought and died for the freedom and patriotism America stands for. The annual celebration took place at Triangle Park where the City of Hialeah honored three veterans who proudly served our country in the military.

Miami International Book Fair: On November 15, 2009 Mayor Julio Robaina joined by Councilwoman Katharine Cue were among the authors that were asked to participate in the renowned event in its twenty-six year. Mayor Robaina and Councilwoman Cue presented their book "When I Grow Up" in the Children's Alley Stage where children were encouraged to experience an array of literary fun.

Art on Palm & Tree Lighting: Mayor Julio Robaina and the City Council hosted the Art on Palm Festival 2009 on November 11th. Fifty tents were filled with sculptures, paintings, and arts & crafts from local, as well as international artists. That same evening the Triangle Park Tree Lighting Ceremony also took place, which officially kicks off the holiday season for the City of Hialeah.
