Dear Friends,

With this issue of the Hialeah Update, I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a healthy and successful 2011. I wish you the best in this new year. With this update I would like to go over some of the events which recently took place in our city, as well as the events which have already taken place this year. I look forward to seeing all of you at our upcoming events.

Snow Blast: Mayor Julio Robaina and the City Council hosted Hialeah's Annual Santa's Snow Blast on December 11, 2010. Santa visited Hialeah and brought with him fifty tons of snow. All residents of Hialeah were encouraged to join the festivities, which included carnival rides, games, and live entertainment. A photo opportunity with Santa, Mrs. Claus and Rudolf the Red Nose Reindeer were just some of the many things that were offered to our city residents.

City Toy Drive: A total of fourteen local elementary schools joined Santa, Mrs. Claus and Mayor Julio Robaina in the Annual City Toy Drive, which took place on December 10, 2010 at Victor Wilde Park. Over 450 less fortunate children received toys, which were donated by city employees and community leaders.

Shop - With - A - Cop: The City of Hialeah Police Department once again partnered with Wal-Mart to host a breakfast and gift ceremony on December 18, 2010 for one hundred low income family children from various Hialeah elementary schools. As the children waited for Santa to arrive, they received complimentary Wal-Mart gift cards. The children later walked the store with Hialeah Police Officers and Cadets to pick out their very own Christmas gifts, courtesy of Wal-Mart.
