Press Release

City of Hialeah & Miami Lighthouse Hosted Vision Screenings for Children in Hialeah

Hialeah, Florida – Mayor Carlos Hernandez & the Hialeah City Council are proud to announce that the city of Hialeah in partnership with Miami Lighthouse, hosted a vision screening program during the months of June & July. The Miami Lighthouse Heiken Children's Vision Program conducted vision screenings for children participating in the City of Hialeah CL&P & YLC summer camp programs.

In total, 142 children were screened and 57 children received a pair of free glasses through the program. Children screened, who needed glasses and had insurance through their parents, received referrals for glasses. The program was offered to participants of the Creative Learning and Play summer camps at Wilde Park, Slade Park, Babcock Park, Walker Park, Hoffman Gardens and Young Leaders with Character Camp at Hialeah Educational Academy.
